Professional Designations

Sara R. Clough holds the professional designations of Accredited Asset Management Specialist℠ ("AAMS®") and Certified Long-Term Care ("CLTC").

The AAMS® designation is an asset management credential awarded by the College for Financial Planning® to individuals who complete the 12-module AAMS® Professional Education Program and successfully pass an examination addressing various investment related matters. Topics tested include asset allocation and selection, taxation of investment products, and deferred compensation and other benefit plans for key executives, amongst others. AAMS® designees must also agree to abide by the College of Financial Planning's Standards of Professional Conduct and complete 16 hours of continuing education on a biannual basis.

The CLTC designation is an insurance related credential awarded by CLTC Board of Standards, Inc. (the "Board of Standards") to those individuals who satisfy its education and ethics requirements. Candidates are required to take a seven-part disciplinary course, pass a written examination addressing various aspects of long-term care planning, and furnish the Board of Standards with both a certificate of good standing and a sworn affidavit stating that they have not been found to have committed fraud within the past five years. In order to maintain the certification, recipients must complete a mandatory ethics program every two years on an ongoing basis.

For additional information about these credentials, please refer directly to the website of the issuing organization.
